

Internal Investigators

Townsville

- New Investigations Unit
- Criminal, Legal / Forensic Accounting

With the recent appointment of a new CEO, Townsville City Council has undertaken a strategic review and designed a new structure that is fit for purpose, resulting in a whole of organisation transformational change. Residents and the community are at the heart of all the Council does as it strives to facilitate sustainable economic development for the region, enhance quality of life for residents, and identify and unlock the potential of the City. This will be achieved through inspired leadership, co-design of services with the community, and sustainable and innovative business partnering.

This is a transformation to a more customer centric business model, and as part of that change in workplace culture, the council is looking to engage 2x Internal Investigators to ensure investigations into Council-related matters, including complaints received both externally and internally, are dealt with in an effective and timely manner. These key areas include:

- Work-practices
- Serious Misconduct
- Corrupt Conduct
- Workplace Harassment
- Serious Workplace Health and Safety Incidents
- Sexual Harassment and Workplace Discrimination

The focus will be on conducting detailed investigations into matters. Including the assessment and prioritisation of complex and sensitive complaints and information received from Council employees, members of public and other stakeholders.

The successful candidates will have significant experience in the management, research, coordination and impartial conduct of complex investigations. Experience in Forensic Accounting OR Legal / Criminal law is desirable.

These are senior roles, reporting directly to the Chief Executive Officer. And include preparation of briefing notes and reports for Senior Council Officers / Stakeholders.

Details of the role can be found at www.tphumancapital.com.au/tcc

For further confidential discussions please contact Clayton Cook at TP Human Capital on 07 4772 3800. Applications close 2 June.
